

PRESIDENT TINUBU APPROVES THE POSTINGS OF AMBASSADORS
“STATEHOUSE PRESS RELEASE”

President Bola Ahmed Tinubu has approved the posting of 31 career diplomats and 34 non-career ambassadors to represent Nigeria in various countries across the world and at the United Nations. The ambassadors-designate were previously screened and confirmed by the Nigerian Senate last December following the submission of their nominations. With the president’s approval of their postings, the ambassadors are expected to assume their roles in their respective missions, where they will work to strengthen Nigeria’s diplomatic relations, promote the country’s interests, and enhance cooperation with other nations and international organizations.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs has already received agrément from the United Kingdom for the High Commissioner-designate, Ambassador Aminu Dalhatu. Similarly, France has sent the agrément for Ambassador Ayo Oke.

The Ministry has also conveyed the nominations of the other 62 designated envoys to all the countries concerned, including a request for their agréments in line with standard diplomatic practice.

President Tinubu has directed that the Ministry of Foreign Affairs should immediately commence the induction programme for the ambassadors-designate and High Commissioners.
